But as it is written
C F
Things which eye has not seen
C F
And ear has not heard and which
C F
Have not come up in man's heart
C
Things which God has prepared
G C
For those who love Him.

Oh, how I love Him.
I set my being on Him.
My desire's to be lost in
And occupied by Him.
I care for naught else
I'm just in love with Him.

Today Christ is the all-inclusive Land,
E7 A
In Spirit, He's the all-inclusive One,
D A
He is the food and very drink we need,
E A A7 D
So now let's eat and drink our Christ,
A E7 A
the all-inclusive Land!

Christ is my hope, He is my only goal,
Christ is my very Love and Light and Air,
He's everything to me, just what I need,
So I must take my Christ,
the all-inclusive One to me!

He is my Love, I love to touch Him so,
His love is so immeasurable to me,
His riches fill my heart continually,
Now Christ can saturate and spread to every part in me.

O what a breadth, Oh, what a length it is,
The height, the depth unsearchable,
Christ is unlimited, so vast, immense,
Thus all He is and all He has is now my life-supply!

More of our heart, dear Lord
Am D
We'd give You now
G Em
Even more ground to You, Lord,
Am B7
We'd allow

Em Em (maj 7) Em7
All that distracts us we'd despise
Em6 Am7
All that draws away our eyes

Lord, do fill our vision
D D7
'Til the morning Star is risen!

We would count all things loss
But Jesus gain.
Our inward parts cry out
For You to reign.

Worthy You are our heart to claim
Come engrave on us Your name.
D7 G
We would love You, Jesus, more.

Less we would argue, Lord
And go our way.
More we would say, "Amen"
To what You say.

Grant us a walk to You conformed
Til our living is transformed,
We would adore You, Jesus
May a pure love for You seize us.

Any unwillingness, Lord
Quickly slay,
Even by faith we open
All the way.

Rising to heights of love unknown
Christ our destiny alone
We would love You, Jesus, more.
