

205.

C Em - Am
 I live and yet not I
 F G C
 For Christ He lives in me.
 Em - Am
 The life I live in the flesh now
 F G C
 Is Christ, just Christ, to be.

 Em Am
 O what a marvelous hope, Lord
 F G C
 To find myself in You,
 Em Am
 And in experience my boasting
 F G C
 To know You through and through.

O what a wondrous existence,
 Of all which is most blessed.
 You see, Lord, I am now softened
 To take from You what's best.

 It's not my fervent resolve, Lord,
 Nor e'en my love untrue
 It's You in me Who is doing,
 What I for You couldn't do.

From every other attraction,
 Be faithful, break me free.
 Though smarting, Lord, from Love's action
 Each wound draws me to Thee.

 You see each end from beginning
 Take me through each dark phase;
 As long, Lord, as love conforms me,
 Fits me to meet You that day.

So here we are, dear Lord Jesus,
 And may Your precious hand,
 Accomplish all that You've purposed,
 All that You've for us planned.

 You are our one destination.
 You are our destiny
 These days, just for our preparing,
 Will leave what in memory?

In us, Lord, gain all You're after,
 In us, Lord, gain Your Bride.
 In us, be so very blessed;
 In us, be satisfied.

 As we, Lord, become Your fullness
 And You in us reside.
 Keep us, dear Lord, in Your love-bonds
 As mutually we abide.
